

COOKIE POLICY

1. Information about our use of cookies

- 1.1. Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our website.

2. What are cookies?

- 2.1. A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

3. What cookies do we use and what is their purpose?

- 3.1. The cookies we use are "analytical" cookies. We use a web analytics service called Google Analytics provided by Google Inc. Google Analytics cookies allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around the website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

4. How can I stop cookies from being saved on my computer?

- 4.1. You can block cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. For further information about cookies and how to disable them please go to the Information Commissioner's webpage on cookies: <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/online/cookies/>.
- 4.2. You can also choose to enable or disable some or all cookies but disabling some of them may affect your browsing experience.
